Adam Stephenson is a Member and a service area leader in the firm's Manufacturing and Distribution Industry Group and serves as the firm's Accounting and Auditing Director of Quality Control. With first-hand knowledge of operations, Adam is uniquely qualified to provide advisory services to clients, including the development of internal controls and overall business strategies. Adam specializes in audits in the manufacturing and construction industries, as well as real estate development and finance. He works closely with companies adhering to U.S. generally accepted accounting principles and is a firm practice leader working with clients following international accounting standards (IFRS). His role extends beyond audits, and as a trained educator and accounting instructor, he contributes to the development of internal policies, procedures and the implementation of new accounting pronouncements and best practices within the firm.
