

WE DEPLOY
SOLUTIONS
TO YOUR UNIQUE CHALLENGES

Today's unique challenges in government contracting require an astute team of advisors.

In the world of government contracting, the ever-changing challenges and regulations can be overwhelming. We appreciate these challenges and have developed a team of experts to help you meet them head on. Our industry experts have worked with hundreds of organizations that do business with the world's largest customer and can help you navigate the regulatory and competitive landscape of the industry to achieve your desired results.

Our team is comprised of people who not only know your industry but have worked in it, providing us with a unique view of the challenges you face on a daily basis. From former DCAA auditors, CFOs and Controllers, Contracts and Procurement Managers, Information Technology and Human Resource Directors, our team is uniquely positioned to provide you with the timely and professional advice that you need.

STRATEGIC ALLIANCES

STRONG PARTNERSHIPS

Together with our strategic alliance partners, our unique blend of skills enables us to support our clients from bid proposal efforts through contract execution, regulatory compliance, conflict resolution, contract closeout and any other issues that come your way.

Bringing

100+ years of experience to serve more than 250 clients

Our team members and their offices are in close proximity to government hubs or large military installations, further ensuring services are suited to the specific needs of the contractor who supports the armed services. Specifically, Warren Averett's government contracting team members are spread across offices located in Huntsville, Tampa, Montgomery, Atlanta, Fort Walton Beach and Pensacola. From startups to multi-national organizations, our team has the experience, knowledge and connections to help you make the most of every opportunity while effectively managing risk and achieving your desired financial results.
