Joe Anderson has been with Warren Averett since 1989 serving a wide variety of clients addressing their management consulting, financial reporting and tax compliance needs. He has extensive experience with tax and audit issues facing closely-held C corporations and pass-through entities, and his practice focuses on financial reporting and tax consulting related to the formation, acquisition and ongoing operations of these entities. His accounting experience includes partner-in-charge responsibilities on audits, review and compilations, as well as reviewing responsibilities on financial statements. Through this experience, Joe has developed expertise in the financial statements and operations of clients in numerous industries. Joe is a member of the Firm's Emerging Executive Group, an elected committee of future Firm leadership tasked with improving operations and supporting Firm growth.
