Conrad Wiley joined Warren Averett in 2017 and is a Senior Manager in the firm's Audit Division. He has more than eight years of public accounting experience. Conrad's primary responsibilities include building client relationships, providing quality service, improving efficiencies in the audit process, training and promoting staff development as well as planning and conducting financial statement audits and reviews. He also has experience with employee benefit plan audits. Conrad is one of the Birmingham office's lease champions helping with the training and implementation of new lease management software. He also works with our staffing and recruiting teams on college events and candidate interviews.
