

CUSTOM SOLUTIONS WHEN AND WHERE YOU NEED THEM

Wouldn't it be nice to have specialized experts on call who are ready to jump in and help with projects, big or small, for as long as needed? You have that option with the flexibility of Warren Averett's outsourced solutions.

Our Warren Averett Government Contracting experts provide outsourced accounting, human resources and technology solutions to allow you the time to focus on more important things, like running your business. We have a menu of options to select from to best meet your company's needs and to provide you with the assurance of having experienced professionals, who are experts in the government contracting industry, looking out for you.

Our professionals tailor solutions to meet your specific situation and budget, while complementing your existing staff, software and business structure. These services are easily scalable as well, which means we can continue to tailor the solutions we offer as your businesses changes and grows.

Secure the SPECIALIZED KNOWLEDGE
you need, whenever you need it.

OUTSOURCED ACCOUNTING

Secure the specialized knowledge you need whenever you need it for as long as you need it without the need for full-time hires. This can involve anything from full back-office support to outsourced CFO/Controller services to supplement your accounting team. Our services are handled in a timely manner by the same professionals who work with some of the largest government contractors in the nation. We understand that there are never enough resources and that hiring experienced, specialized government contractor talent can come with a large price tag. Warren Averett's industry experts can step in, get work done for you and change our scope of services as your business grows, doing as much or as little as you need.

OUTSOURCED HR SOLUTIONS

Since Warren Averett is one of the largest firms in the Southeast, we are privileged to employ some of the most experienced professionals who are up-to-date on the ever-changing regulations and requirements surrounding the Human Resources function. From design and implementation of processes and procedures to benefit plan design and investment management, you need an experienced, quality partner to ensure your Human Resource function is effective and compliant.

OUTSOURCED TECH SOLUTIONS

Investing in technology is a big decision, and there is great value in making the most of this asset. Warren Averett can help you with business system strategy development, selection, implementation and support to ensure that you are leveraging your technology to its full potential and that you have an advocate to help you along the way. Since we are Unanet and Deltek partners, we can pass along our partnership discounts to our clients.

ABOVE AND BEYOND

The menu doesn't end there. We can offer value to your business with our Corporate Advisory Services, which provide transaction support and specialty tax services. Warren Averett also offers personal solutions for you and your family to ensure your assets are managed in a way that meets your financial goals. We provide estate planning, daily money management and personal tax planning to help secure your legacy.
