Kathy Rudder is a Member and a Service Area Leader for the firm's Huntsville Tax Division. She has more than 20 years of experience in public and industry accounting. Prior to joining Warren Averett, in addition to public accounting experience, Kathy held roles ranging from accounting intern to financial controller. This gave her a unique perspective on the challenges faced by business owners and allows her to offer solutions beyond traditional tax compliance and planning. As Service Area Leader, she supports her team operationally by championing firm initiatives, policies and procedures and supporting them individually with resources to foster their A+ talent. Kathy loves to demystify all things numbers for her clients and to connect them with the resources at Warren Averett that can help them thrive.
