Ron Kelm is a Member in the Tax Division of Warren Averett and brings to clients more than 25 years of accumulated experience in audit and tax accounting. Ron assists clients with corporate and personal tax planning and tax compliance. He is adept at dealing with multi-state tax issues, whether they are income, sales or other state tax problems. He has accumulated experience in preparing multiple tax returns for companies with holdings in numerous states, dealing with Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and state audits, and successfully representing clients before both the federal and state revenue services at audit and appeals levels. For closely-held business clients, Ron offers experience with organizational structure and selection, compensation issues, business reorganizations and liquidations, accounting methods and like-kind exchanges. He has worked with numerous companies across a wide range of industries, such as construction, real estate, manufacturing and technology.
