

Physician practices operate in an increasingly regulated market. Keeping up with the constant changes in healthcare financial regulations and requirements can be complex for hospitals, not to mention other smaller medical and dental practices.

We focus on your business so you can focus on your patients. Our professionals help medical practices improve efficiency and optimize profitability, while also ensuring that practices are set up to receive high patient satisfaction ratings. It is also very common in this industry for physicians to become overworked and overwhelmed, so we strive to ensure you are working smarter, not harder. Achieving a good work/life balance is key to being the best healthcare provider possible.

WHAT SETS US APART

Expertise. We understand the nuances of the healthcare industry, and many of our professionals have dedicated their entire careers to specializing in serving clinics, physicians and their medical practices. Our experts are specifically trained to help you and your practice stay on track financially.

Warren Averett provides financial services and consulting to help you save money, stay in compliance and plan for your future. We can provide financial and accounting guidance, as well as direction in managing daily operations over 40 hospitals, 60 nursing facilities and 500 physician practices of practices ranging in size from new start-ups to long-established regional, national and international companies. Serving over 40 hospitals, 60 nursing facilities and 500 physician practices, Warren Averett has an established reputation as "the healthcare firm."

Forward thinking. The drastic, and sometimes complex changes in healthcare have left many people wondering about the future of medicine. In addition to meeting with all our clients one-on-one to discuss year-end planning, we continually keep our clients informed of the latest industry tax and regulatory updates throughout the year. Warren Averett sends quarterly newsletters containing updates, deadlines and suggestions relevant to your practice. We also host frequent practice management roundtables throughout the Southeast to discuss industry updates and share solutions to your practice's daily challenges.

ACCOUNTING AND BEYOND

Warren Averett has developed a niche in assisting physicians with the business aspect of their practices, as well as advising on personal matters. On an ongoing basis, Warren Averett can provide personal and business accounting services, bookkeeping, personal retirement planning, practice retirement plan administration, asset management, estate planning for physicians, payroll and human resource services and comprehensive staffing services.

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

Warren Averett can provide speakers for physician and medical office manager meetings. We are regular speakers at local and national medical group management associations, local medical societies and hospitals. We have a collection of enthusiastically received topics targeting physicians, practice managers or medical staff. We are also willing and able to customize speeches about any issue upon request.

"Warren Averett ensures that all the financial matters of my personal and professional life are organized, reviewed at intervals and sensibly diversified. They have given me and my family tremendous peace of mind."
