Roger Spain is a Principal in Warren Averett's Consulting Division. He brings over 25 years of public accounting experience, which includes his time providing auditing and consulting services, litigation support and business valuation services. Additionally, he has multiple years of experience as a commercial banker. As a result of this varied background, Roger has worked in numerous industries and is able to apply his broad experience to businesses facing strategic challenges. His background working as an advisor to management as well as a commercial lender provide him a perspective unique among most consultants. Currently, Roger is primarily responsible for providing outsourced and fractional CFO services to various industries and businesses with operations in the Southeast.
