Sarah Louviere is a Senior Manager in Warren Averett's Consulting Division. She has more than 10 years of public accounting experience and specializes in advisory and consulting services for federal and state Research & Development (R&D) Tax Credits. Her primary responsibility within the firm is managing R&D Tax Credit projects from inception to completion. This includes gathering and analyzing client data, conducting technical interviews with client subject matter experts for qualification of R&D activities, researching technical tax issues, performing calculations of R&D Tax Credits and drafting technical project reports for documentation of R&D activities. Prior to joining Warren Averett, Sarah worked for a few different international firms located in Atlanta, Georgia.
